Topic: CSR- Applicability and Its Importance.

Resource Person: Sri Manjunath S, Practicing Company Secretary and Agriculturalist, Manjunath S & Co, Mysuru

Time: 3 PM to 5 PM

Today, in the Social Work Student Forum activity, we had Sri, Manjunath S, Practicing Company Secretary & Agriculturist, Manjunath S & Co, as resource person to talk on 'CSR-Applicability and Its Importance. According to him, Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is a self-regulating business model that helps a company be socially accountable to itself, its stakeholders, and the public. By practicing corporate social responsibility, also called corporate citizenship, companies can be conscious of the kind of impact they are having on all aspects of society, including economic, social, and environmental. He discussed about various laws pertaining to Corporate Social Responsibility and budget regarding Corporate Social Responsibility. There are various job opportunities for MSW graduates in the organization carrying out Corporate Social Responsibility activities.

Most of his works are on Corporate Social Responsibilities. He talked about the importance of CSR for the industry and business. The following activities permitted under Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)

- Eradicating extreme hunger and poverty.
- Promotion of education.
- Promoting gender equality and empowering women.
- Reducing child mortality.
- Improving maternal health.
