Mysore University Information and Library Science Alumni Network

MILAN

MILAN Musings

Geetha Venkatram in conversation with Mysore K Jagadish

In this episode of MILAN Musings, Geetha Venkatram will share her reflections on her time at her alma mater--MyDLIS, career, and life journey with conversationalist Mysore K. Jagadish.

Geetha Venkatram - an alumna of the University of Mysore, obtained her BLibSc in 1973 after graduating with a BSc degree from Karnatak University in 1972. She brings a rich and varied professional experience, working in diverse organizations: she joined CFTRI, Mysore, and worked on a project called 'FOSTIS' for 15 months; later, from 1975-78 worked at CIIL, Mysore. She joined Smith Kleine & French India Ltd, Bangalore, in 1978 and worked for three years. In 1981 she acquired an MLibSc degree from the University of Madras, joined the Central Institute of Plastics Engineering and Technology in 1983, and worked for five years. She joined TCS in 1988 and was Branch Head at Chennai and Bangalore, and took voluntary retirement in 2010.

Geetha Venkatram

An Alumnus of the Department of Library and Information Science, University of Mysore, Jagadish, worked at the American Library Chennai for over 36 years and retired as Director in 2011. After retirement, he worked as a consultant at the Central University of Tamil Nadu, Tiruvarur. He has served as an expert committee member for Selection of Librarians and Board of Studies Member at a few Universities. He was the Chief Librarian at the Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore, 2014-2015. Currently, he is involved in developing and establishing the digital archive at the Madras Music Academy Library.

As Librarian over several decades, Jagadish concentrated mainly on Library Service to clientele and reached many varied audiences. Jagadish can sing (Carnatic music) and play the percussion instrument –Mridangam.

Mysore K. Jagadish

July 10, 2021: 11 am to 12:30 pm

Virtual Mode: https://meet.google.com/xzg-aqeu-enu

You are cordially invited

Mysore University Information and Library Science Alumni Network

www.milan-mysore.org