CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that Ms. Bhoomika B Y, pursuing her M.Sc. (Chemistry) at Department of studies in Organic chemistry, Manasagangothri, University of Mysore (KA), has successfully completed her dissertation as a part of internship program during MAY-JUNE 2023 on "Preparation of amide derivatives of 2-Chlorophenylacetic acid and their characterization" at our organization.

During this period, she was found to be regular and attentive. She has gained the knowledge on the reaction set-up and monitoring the reactions by TLC/ HPLC, isolation and purification of organic compounds by recrystallization and column chromatography. She also learned the safe handling of chemicals and personal safety at work.
