1. PREAMBLE

- 1.1. The University of Mysore or UoM (First party - herein referred to as the University) is in the forefront of tipping human resource potential towards excellence and is considered as an Institution of Excellence under the XI plan, University with Potential for Excellence (UPE), and listed within top 20 institutions under Graded II Autonomy, by UGC and MHRD. It gives the importance to the repeated stress made by UGC on the creation of Life Long Learning facilities Universities with a focus on adult literacy, student placements educating the employed and creating proper awareness to the society, for nation building. The country's economic performance depends critically on access to and the option of new technology and improving the skills and knowledge of the work force, equipping the workforce with relevant skills implies the need for creating a variety of learning and training opportunities. The University has taken upon itself to further such opportunities and expand its reach in this direction by collaborating with other educational institutes, organizations and professional bodies of eminence. The University through The University of Mysore – Recognition of Certain Institutions for Specified Studies / Specialized Studies and Research – Statutes 2008 is engaging with many reputed institutions/organizations to further the cause of higher education in diverse fields including criminology and forensic science
- 1.2. The Karnataka Police Academy, Mysuru or KPA (Second party - herein referred to as the Academy), the premier police training institute of Karnataka State and one of the renowned police academies in the country, has a glorious history of more than 100 years in the service of nation and the state. Apart from imparting basic training to newly recruited Sub-Inspectors & Deputy Superintendents of Police and conducting post-institutional orientation training for the IPS officers of Karnataka cadre, the Academy caters to the basic training needs of other departments like Prison, Excise, Road Transport, Central Customs, Metrology, Customs and Excise. The Academy has also conducted the basic training for the police officers of Puducherry, Maldives and Bhutan. Another important mandate of the Academy is to conduct refresher, thematic and post promotional courses for in-service officers while aiming to create a pool of trainers. The Academy has been organizing seminars and workshops in collaboration with BPR&D, NHRC, SHRC, NCW, Union Ministry of Commerce and Industry, other government departments and reputed NGOs. The Academy has also partnered with international organizations like FBI to conduct ATI courses and with the Bavarian State Police to develop scenario based training. The overall aim of Academy remains to foster professionalism with service-orientation in its trainee officers in order to meet the modern day challenges of the complex policing landscape. The Academy is poised to don the mantle of a centre of excellence in education, training and research in the field of policing and security in collaboration with the reputed educational institutes.
- 1.3. Both parties, the University and the Academy, have herewith decided to partner and collaborate with each other for the design, delivery and evaluation of certificate/PGD/Masters programs and for the promotion of research in the field of policing and security while clearly outlining the objectives and modalities. Hence this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU).
