

Celebration of English Day

23rd April, 2023

English Day with great enthusiasm, featuring insightful talks that highlight the significance of the English language in today's world. Prof. Krishna K Manavalli delivered an engaging lecture on the relevance of English, emphasizing its role as a global lingua franca that facilitates communication across cultures and borders. She discussed how proficiency in English opens up myriad opportunities in the international arena, enhancing both academic and professional prospects.

Following her, Chairperson Ramesh Jayaramaiah spoke about the importance of English in day-to-day life. He illustrated how English has become indispensable in various sectors such as education, business, technology, and media. Chairperson Jayaramaiah stressed the practical benefits of fluency in English, including better access to information, enhanced career opportunities, and the ability to participate in global discourse.

The event underscored the essential role of English in personal and professional development, reaffirming its importance as a key skill in our interconnected world. The students, Ayana V Raman, Devika and Shreya Bhat recited some of the major poems of English literature. Pratheek R Akki spoke on the contribution of Indians to the world of English Literature. At last, the snacks are catered.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, which appears to read "Ramesh Jayaramaiah". The signature is fluid and cursive.

CHAIRPERSON
Department of Studies in English
University of Mysore
Manasagangothri
Mysore - 570 006