Reporton"AlcoholicsAnonymous"

The Department of Library and Information Science at the University of Mysore organized a FridayTalkseriesprogramonthetopic"AAE-AlcoholicsAnonymous"throughtheMULISSA association.

Theevent commenced with aprayer led byKavya, afirst-year student.

The guest of honor and faculty members inaugurated the event by watering a plant. The chief guest, retired police of ficer Shantharaju, addressed the students, emphasizing their organization's commitment to providing freeservices to those affected by various addictions, regardless of caste or religion.

He openly shared his thoughts and experiences about the Manasagangotri Campus. Another distinguished speaker, Ganesh, discussed Alcoholics Anonymous and psychological issues, stressing the importance of listening to learn and learning to listen.

He noted that addiction has become quite common these days and mentioned that many prominent individuals have carried out their duties despite being addicts. He urged everyone to stay away from such addictions. Additionally, he emphasized that "keeping oneself free from intoxication and helping those who are addicted to stay away from intoxication is the primary goal of their organization.

He also discussed his own struggles with addiction and recalled the lines from Swami Vivekananda's book, "Experience is the best teacher." Following this, John shared his life experiences. Then, S. N. Murthy spoke about AAE (Alcoholics Anonymous), detailing various types of anonymous groups and stressing that we all need to oppose these addictions.

The session concluded with Prof. Chandrashekara M., Chairman of the Department, urging the students to avoid becoming addicts and to work together to build a balanced and sustainable society. The event ended with the dignitaries being honoured with mementos.
